Prevent the flu in 3 easy clicks!

Canadians health care professionals agree, the best method of flu prevention is vaccination.

Montreal, November 23, 2015 – Thousands of Canadians are being affected by influenza this year. The rest are scrambling to come up with new ways evade the nasty flu.

Canadian health care professionals agree that the best method of flu prevention is vaccination.<sup>1</sup>

Not sure where to go to get your flu shot? Vaccines411.ca prepares Canadians by offering them easy access to over 5,400 vaccinating flu clinics in just 3 clicks no matter their device.

With the most complete Canadian online database of flu clinics, finding out where to go to get the influenza vaccine is simple with Vaccines411.ca! Just enter your postal code, choose a category, select the flu vaccine and find a location in your neighbourhood that administers the flu shot.

The influenza vaccine is available for every Canadian. Getting the flu shot even if you are a healthy adult means reducing the risk of spreading influenza to other individuals who could potentially be severely impacted by the virus.

We encourage you to take the information you learn here and discuss any concerns you may have with your health care professionals. Get the conversation about vaccine safety started.
